

OUR NHS OUR FUTURE

UNISON Scotland Nursing Conference Friday, 30 September 2011: Trades Hall, Glasgow

This one day conference is open to our members across the whole nursing family, including: nurses, midwives, health visitors and healthcare assistants. Together we will consider the key issues currently affecting members and offer an opportunity to debate the future of nursing in Scotland.

Conference speakers:

Nicola Sturgeon, Cabinet Secretary for Health & Wellbeing
Keynote Speaker

Ros Moore, Chief Nurse for Scotland
'Maintaining and delivering safe nursing care on a reduced budget'

Gail Adams, Head of Nursing for UNISON
'Protecting standards and you'

Glyn Jenkins, UNISON Head of Pensions
Pensions debate

Gordon McKay, Chair of the Nursing Sector and NEC Member

REGISTER TODAY

The cost for attending this one day conference, 10am-4.30pm, is £25 per delegate, payable by your branch.

To register, contact Delia Atherton on 0141 342 2851 or d.atherton@unison.co.uk

Find out more about our Public Works and Protect our Pensions campaigns online at:
www.unison-scotland.org.uk

PUBLIC WORKS: